THE SECRET OF PROFITABLE GROWING!

Explaining why it pays the Grower to buy from a specialist in Plant Production

Quick sales at a reasonable profit and rapid turnover of stock is the foundation of all merchandising success. Any man who is engaged in the business of selling any kind of merchandise owes it to himself to make a careful study of his stock to make sure that there is a market for his wares and that his wares will meet the demands of his market.

There always has been and always will be a market for high grade stock in the Florist and Horticultural field. On the other hand, inferior grades, even at the best of times, must hunt a buyer—and then perhaps be sacrificed. Right now when the difference between quality stock and the common run means the difference between profit and loss to the Grower it is vitally important for the Grower to consider carefully the source of his stock!

Many Growers who would not think of saving seed from plants of inferior growth that have been stunted or plants with undesirable characteristics and low vitality, year after year will take this same stock and from it propagate their next crop of cuttings! The results are obvious. YOU JUST CAN'T PRODUCE SELECT STOCK FROM CULLS! Of course, with the retailer, his stock is picked over to satisfy his buyers and naturally the best stock is sold and only the degenerated growers, shy bloomers, weaklings and culls are left at the end of the season. Rather than take a loss on this left-over stock many Growers set about using these for propagating next season's stock.

The specialist in plant production does not have to contend with the problems of the retailer. His chief work is that of constantly seeking to improve every bit of his stock! In the Vincent organization, for example, inferior stock is not tolerated. At the first sign of deterioration stock is discarded. Plants with flowers not up to well defined standards in size and color or which show any variation in habit of growth are thrown out. Our organization is in a better position to do this eliminating than the average Grower. As specialists we spend all of our time dealing with problems of propagation which the retailer encounters only occasionally. We are particularly careful to know all about the source from which our stock is secured.

If it doesn't come from the introducer then we make sure that the grower has a reputation for a high standard of his production. The original stock of some of our Geraniums, Lantanas and Fuchsias, for example, was imported direct from such famous introducers as Bruant, Lemoine, Boucharlat and Cannell; men who have spent their entire lives improving their special lines of horticulture. Our own propagators are carefully trained, and thru experience have developed their powers of discernment not only to recognize inferior traits but also to discover superior qualities, ever seeking the ideal thru the constant improvement of each crop.

Thus, the Grower who buys his stock from Vincent's knows that he will have the plants which he can grow and sell at a profit! Each VINCENT plant is backed up by more than 50 years of VINCENT experience in serving the grower!

Are You Getting Your Share ?

Brisk seasonal buying indicates an inclination to spend money on Flowers. This Spring brings you a chance to make up for past losses and get away to a good start for 1932. To get your share of this business you must do two things. First, you must get your stocks complete; second, you must let your trade know what you have in stock. You can't sell what you haven't got and people won't know what you've got unless you tell them!
